Legislative Council.

The 31st March 1855.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 31st March 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 4th of June next:—

A Bill for the better regulation of buildings and for the more effectually preventing accidents by fire within the Town of Calcutta.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal Act XII of 1837 and to provide for the better regulation of buildings and for the more effectual prevention of accidents by fire within the said Town. It is enacted as follows:—

I. Act XII. of 1837 is hereby repealed, except as to any act or offence done or committed, or to any fine or penalty incurred, or to any proceedings commenced before the passing of this Act.

II. No house or out-house which shall be built within the Town of Calcutta after the passing of this Act, shall be covered with an outer roof or covering of thatch or combustible materials, unless the consent of the Commissioners for the Improvement of the Town of Calcutta be obtained for that purpose.

III. It shall not be lawful for the owner or occupier of any house or out-house, whether built before or after the passing of this Act, or whether at the time covered with an outer roof of thatch or other combustible materials or not, either in re-building, altering, repairing or re-covering the same, or on any occasion, or for any purpose whatever, to cover or cause or permit to be covered any such house or out-house, either wholly or in part, with an outer roof or covering of thatch or other combustible materials, without the consent of the said Commissioners first obtained for that purpose.

IV. It shall not be lawful for the owner or occupier of any house or out-house within the said Town which, at the time of the passing of this Act, has, or is covered with, an outer roof of thatch or other combustible materials, or for any person having control over the same, to suffer such roof or covering or any roof or covering of combustible materials to remain as the outer covering of the said house or out-house after the 1st day of January 1857.

V. Every person who, without such consent as aforesaid, shall cover or cause or permit to be covered any house or out-house within the said Town wholly or in part with an outer roof of any combustible materials, or suffer an outer roof or covering of such material erected before the passing of this Act, or any roof or covering of combustible materials, to remain as an outer covering of the said house or out-house after the 1st day of January 1857, contrary to any of the provisions herein contained, and who shall not, within one week after notice given to him for that purpose, either remove the same or cover the same with an outer roof of incombustible materials, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to a fine not exceeding Company's rupees 100 or, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month. Provided that such notice as aforesaid may be given by any person or persons whatsoever and that service of any such notice upon the said premises shall be deemed sufficient service of such notice.

VI. The said Commissioners are hereby empowered, upon the application of any person, to signify their consent, by any writing signed by their Consent of Commissioners—continuance and revocation of consent.

Secretary or Surveyor for the time being, to the covering, either wholly or in part, any house or out-house within the said Town with an outer roof of thatch or other combustible materials or to the continuing of any such outer roof after the period herein-before mentioned. But every such consent shall express the time for which it is to remain in force. And, after the expiration of such time, the owner or occupier of the said house or out-house suffering the said outer roof or covering of combustible materials to continue, shall be liable to be proceeded against as if he had originally covered the said house with such roof or suffered the same to continue without such consent as aforesaid. But it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from time to time to revoke or to renew such consent if they shall think fit.

VII. Upon any conviction under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom it shall take place to order that any such roof or covering of combustible materials, or not otherwise) to cover or cause to be covered the said house or out-house with an outer roof of incombustible materials and to cause such alteration to be made in the walls as may enable them to support such outer roof.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to sell or cause to be sold the materials of such roof or covering, building or thing as in the last preceding Section mentioned Commissioners may sell materials removed—surplus, after payment of expenses, to be paid to owner.

ed, and, out of the monies arising from such sale, to pay the reasonable charges for such removal and of such new covering and alteration when the same shall take place. And the said Commissioners shall pay the surplus, if any, to the occupier of the said house or to the person entitled to the immediate possession thereof. If the monies accruing from such sale be not sufficient to pay such costs and charges, the said occupier, or the person entitled to the immediate possession of the said house, shall be liable to pay the same, and if he shall not, on demand, pay the same, then it shall be lawful for any

Mode of recovering expenses if the money arising from such sale be insufficient.

Justice of the Peace, by warrant under his hand, (upon a summons issued to such occupier or person) to cause the amount thereof, together with the costs of such distress, to be levied by distress and sale of the goods, chattels and effects of such occupier or person, and to cause the amount thereby realized to be paid over to the said Commissioners.

IX. Whenever any conflagration shall take place in any plot or parcel of land within the said Town wherein any houses or out-houses are built, and more than two of such houses or out-houses near to one another, and not having any other house or out-house between them, shall be burnt down, or whenever any plot of land in the said Town may be let out, or be taken or acquired for building purposes, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to build, or cause or permit the building of any houses or out-houses on such plot or parcel of land in a confused, scattered or irregular manner, but the houses and out-houses built therein shall be arranged in regular streets or lines, giving a frontage and free passage or way in front of every such house or out-house of at least 10 feet, unless the consent of the Commissioners for the Town of Calcutta (to be obtained and signified in the manner hereinbefore mentioned) to the building or arranging the same otherwise, be obtained.

X. Every passage or way in front of any house or out-house so to be constructed as aforesaid, although the same pass over the private property of individuals, shall be deemed to be a public street within the meaning of the Act No. XII. of 1852, and shall be subject to all the provisions of the said Act.

XI. If any person shall, after any such conflagration, or after any plot or parcel of land shall have been let out or taken for building purposes, or if any person who intends to build more than one house or hut upon any vacant place of land not enclosed in a compound shall, without the consent of the said Commissioners, to be so signified as aforesaid, build, or cause or permit to be built upon such land, any houses, huts or buildings in a confused, scattered or irregular manner or without arranging the said huts in a regular line or way, giving a frontage or free passage in front of each house or out-house, and who shall not, within days after notice given to him or served upon the said premises by any person or persons whatever, pull down and remove the said hut and building, or huts and buildings, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to a fine not exceeding Company's rupees one hundred and, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment not exceeding one month.

Penalty for erecting building not according to the directions of this Act.

XII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to purchase and take absolutely, or on lease for such terms as they may think fit, any land near or adjoining to any tank in the said Town, which the said Commissioners may deem it necessary to purchase or take for the purpose of setting apart such a pathway or space road or near to the said tank as will permit a free passage for fire engines and scavenging carts, regard being had in the compensation of the owners or occupiers of such land.

XIII. Every such purchase shall be made, and land taken subject to the provisions of the Act No. XII. of 1852 as to lands taken and purchased by the Commissioners under that Act, and subject to the provisions of the Act No. XXII. of 1847 as to compensation of the owner and occupier of the said land, save that, in every case in which a dispute or difference between the said Commissioners and any person whose property they may intend to purchase for the purpose of this Act as to the amount of compensation to be paid for the said property, which difference and dispute either of the said parties shall refuse, or shall not consent to settle by arbitration, instead of the said dispute being settled by and before the Sheriff and a Jury as in that Act provided, the same shall be settled and determined by a Justice of the Peace of and for the Town of Calcutta, who shall have the same power to ascertain and award the amount of purchase money and of compensation, and shall proceed in the same manner, and shall be vested with the same powers as the Sheriff and the Jury respectively under the said Act: and the proceedings before, and the award of the said Justice of the Peace, shall be of the same force and effect and attended with the same consequences as the proceedings before, and the verdict and judgment respectively of the Jury and Sheriff under the said Act: and the said Commissioners shall have all the powers in respect of lands purchased under this Act as they have or hereafter may have in respect of lands vested in them for public purposes under the said Act. But it shall not be necessary for the said Commissioners to obtain the consent of the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to the purchasing or taking any land under this Act.

XIV. All penalties and fines incurred under this Act, except where it is otherwise and specially provided by the Act, shall be imposed and recovered in the manner prescribed by Act No. XII. of 1852 in respect of the penalties and fines incurred under that Act, and shall be applied in the same manner, save that such portion of the said fine as shall be paid over to the said Commissioners shall be applied by them in the first instance for the purposes of this Act, and all powers and authorities given by the said last-mentioned Act to any Justice of the Peace or to the said Commissioners for the Improvement of the Town of Calcutta with respect to any matter or thing done under the said Act, except so far as the power of such Justices or Commissioners are hereby specially limited or defined, shall be applicable to any matter or thing done under this Act.

XV. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject and context repugnant to such construction: namely, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number; words importing the masculine gender only shall include females; the word "person" shall include a corporation; the word "street" shall include any public square, street, court, alley, footpath, highway, lane, road, thoroughfare or other public place within the said Town; the word "house" shall include any dwelling house, hut, habitation or building used for a dwelling-place; the word "out-house" shall include any out-house, stable, stall, shed, godown or building not used for a dwelling place.

Notification.—The following Rules for the observance of European travellers proceeding through the Kohat Pass have been approved by the Honorable the President in Council, and are published for general information :—

1. Officers are allowed to go through the Kohat Pass whenever it is declared open by the Civil Authorities of Peshawur or Kohat, but not otherwise.

2. Officers going through the Kohat Pass from either side, whether on duty or on leave, are to be provided by the Military Authorities with an escort from Fort Mackeson to Kohat, or vice versa.

3. Any Officer wishing to go through the Kohat Pass, either on duty or on leave, will first draw out a blank certificate in the subjoined form, and obtain the District Officer's signature to column No. 1; he will then attach the certificate to his application for a Military escort or for leave, and if the Officer has orders or permission to go, the Station Staff will fill up column No. 2, and return the certificate, the production of which shall be a sufficient order to the Officer commanding at Fort Mackeson or the Commandant of Cavalry at Kohat to furnish the escort; and on arrival at Kohat or Peshawur, the traveller will fill up column No. 3, and finally forward the certificate to the Civil Officer of that District. The same course will be observed on returning.

Notification.

TO THE OFFICERS OF THE JUDICIAL, REVENUE CUSTOMS, SALT, OPIUM, ARMAKER, AND OTHER BRANCHES OF THE SERVICE

THE Civil Auditor requests that disbursing Officers will submit for audit a detailed Pay Abstract of their Office Establishments, respectively, for the month of April 1855, stating therein the date of the Orders of Government sanctioning the same, the names of the several Officers with the date of their appointments, and any alteration in the salaries of Christian Assistants, and Native Onlahs, that may have been made agreeably to the Financial Rules of the 8th December 1844. The Thannah Establishments under the control of the Magistrates and Joint-Magistrates are to be specified in detail, distinguishing the sums drawn under each particular head, and the total of the Police Force shown at one view in the out-column of the above Abstract. The Orders notified in the Calcutta Gazette, of the 6th January 1844, page 11, regarding vacant situations, should be strictly attended to, and at the foot of the Abstract a Memorandum must be given, showing the sum drawn purely as Batta on account of Salaries of old incumbents, and also any reductions that may have been effected in consequence of vacancies, and the amount of such deductions subsequently carried to the credit of Government.

Legislative Council.

The 14th April 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st March 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855,) and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. IX. OF 1855.

An Act for the amendment of Procedure in cases of regular appeal to the Sudder Court in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS it is desirable to simplify and shorten the procedure in regular appeals to the Court of Sudder Preamble.

Udalut in the Presidency of Fort St. George; it is enacted as follows :—

I. Clause 1st.

Petition of regular appeal, when and to what Court to be presented, and what to contain.

in modification of Clause fifth, Section X. Regulation V. of 1802, every petition of regular appeal in a case appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed within six weeks from the day of the decision. Such petitions of appeal shall, except in cases of petitions under Section XII. of this Act, contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the decision, is desirous of appealing from it.

Clause 2nd.

Time for presenting petition of appeal may be extended. To what Court, and how application to be made.

The Sudder Court may extend the time for presenting such petition of appeal to the lower Court, upon being satisfied that there is sufficient cause for such extension of time. The application for such extension of time may be made directly to the Sudder Court, or through the intervention of the lower Court, at the option of the applicant.

II. On presentation of a petition of regular

Notice to be given to respondent — and proclamation to issue.

appeal to the Court in which the decision was passed, notice thereof to the respondent, as well as a proclamation to the same effect, shall immediately issue from that Court, and a copy of the proclamation shall be forthwith fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the said Court. If the notice cannot be reasonably served, the proclamation shall at once be fixed upon the door of the respondent's dwelling-house, or in some conspicuous place in the village or place where he usually resides; or in cases in which the respondent shall not have a fixed residence within the jurisdiction of the Company's Courts, the proclamation may be fixed upon the door of his house of business or cutcherry, or the notice may be served on his known local agent. In case the proclamation cannot be fixed, or the notice served in the manner above mentioned, the proclamation shall be fixed up in such other place, if any, as the said last-mentioned Court shall direct. The Nazir shall make a return to the Court stating when and where the notice and proclamation have been served or fixed up. The return of the Nazir shall be filed in Court, and shall form part of the record of the case, and such return shall be published by fixing up the same in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the lower Court.

III. Clause 1st. The rule in Section XI. Regulation V. of 1802, which directs copies of all original papers transmitted to the Sudder Court with the record of an appealed case to be made out and deposited in the lower Court, in lieu of the originals, is hereby modified, and it shall be necessary to copy, authenticate, and deposit only the exhibits in the case, and also any other papers of importance, including the pleadings, or any parts of them, which either of the parties shall require to be copied, authenticated and deposited in the lower Court, previously to their being transmitted to the Sudder Court.

Of what original papers copies are to be deposited.

Clause 2nd. If either of the parties require any papers to be copied, authenticated and deposited, such party shall, either by himself, or his pleader or authorized agent, give notice in writing thereof to the lower Court, before the expiration of fourteen days from the time of the publication of the return of the Nazir, as aforesaid: such notice shall specify the papers which the party requires to be copied, authenticated and deposited.

Clause 3rd. Either party may, by himself, or his pleader or authorized agent, before the presentation of an appeal, give notice in writing to the lower Court specifying any papers or documents which he requires to be copied, authenticated and deposited, in the event of an appeal being preferred.

IV. The petition of appeal together with the record of the lower Court shall be certified to the Sudder Court as soon as conveniently may be after the presentation of the petition of appeal, provided that the same shall not be certified within the time allowed to the parties for specifying the papers which they desire to be copied, authenticated and deposited.

V. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the said Court, requiring the appellant to file, within six weeks from the date thereof, his grounds of objection to the decision of the Court below. Within the said space of six weeks, the appellant shall file in the said Sudder Court his grounds of objection to the decision.

VI. Clause 1st. On the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the Sudder Court, requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, if any, to the appeal, or to the decision of the lower Court, within four weeks from the date of such notice.

Clause 2nd. Within the said space of four weeks, the respondent shall file any grounds of objection which he has to the appeal, or which relate to such parts of the decision as are involved in the appeal.

Clause 3rd. If the respondent shall desire to object to any part of the decision of the lower Court not involved in the appeal, he may present a separate petition of appeal to the Sudder Court within the said space of four weeks, or within such further time as the said Sudder Court shall allow for that purpose.

Clause 4th. The respondent shall, in such case, file with his petition of appeal, his grounds of objection to that part of the decision to which his appeal relates; otherwise his appeal shall not be received.

VII. Clause 1st. At the expiration of the time allowed to the respondent for filing his grounds of objection, and for filing a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision, on any day which the Sudder Court may notify, unless the respondent, within such time, file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court.

Clause 2nd. If the respondent file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, notice shall be fixed up in the Court House of the Sudder Court, to the effect that the respondent has filed such separate appeal; and the notice shall require the appellant to file any grounds of objection which he may have thereto, within the space of four weeks from the date of the notice.

Clause 3rd. Within such space of four weeks, the appellant may file any grounds of objection which he has to such appeal, or which relate to that part of the decision which is involved in the respondent's appeal. At the expiration of the time allowed for filing such grounds of objection by the appellant, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision on any day which the Sudder Court shall notify for that purpose.

Clause 4th. If the appeal of either party be dismissed, or withdrawn, the appeal of the other may be heard alone; otherwise the two appeals, and the proceedings thereon, shall form one record, unless the Sudder Court shall otherwise order.

VIII. The respondent shall not be allowed to present a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, if he shall previously have presented a petition of appeal to the lower Court.

IX. Clause 1st. All grounds of objection, which shall be filed by either the appellant or the respondent, shall be stated distinctly and concisely, without any argument or narrative of facts; and shall be numbered consecutively, and, except in the cases hereinafter mentioned, shall be on paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIX. Regulation XIII. of 1816.

Clause 2nd. The Sudder Court may extend the time for filing grounds of objection, either by an appellant or respondent, upon special application for that purpose, and upon sufficient reasons being shown, to the satisfaction of the said Court, for such extension of time. In such case, the objections may be filed within such extended time.

X. Either party may, by leave of the Sudder Court or any Judge thereof, at any time before the hearing, amend his grounds of objection, or add grounds of objection to those filed, upon such terms and conditions, and within such time as the said Court or Judge may order. The said Court may also, upon the hearing of any appeal, allow either party to amend his grounds of objection, or to add further grounds, or to urge, and be heard by himself or his pleader, in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection, upon such terms and conditions as to postponement of the cause, and as to the payment of costs or otherwise, as the Court shall think just, to prevent the opposite party or his pleader from being taken by surprise, or otherwise. Without such leave of the Court, neither party shall be allowed to urge or to be heard in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection filed. But the Court shall not be confined to such grounds of objection in deciding the cause.

XL. Clause 1st. The Sudder Court may call up for hearing and decision on any day the Court shall notify, and without regard to the place in which the case stands in the general list of appeals, any grounds of objection filed by the respondent, or the appellant, to the appeal of the opposite party; and the Sudder Court may hear and decide upon such grounds of objection, before calling the case up for decision upon the grounds of objection to the decision of the lower Court.

Clause 2nd. If the grounds of objection filed by the appellant and respondent shall be upon points of law only, and shall not raise any question of fact, the Sudder Court may order the case to be called up for hearing and decision on any day which the said Court shall notify, without regard to the place in which it stands in the general list of appeals pending in the said Court.

Clause 3rd. If the grounds of objection filed shall raise questions of law and fact, and it shall appear to the Sudder Court that the decision of the law may render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact so raised, the Court may order the case to be called up for decision upon the law alone in the first instance, in the manner pointed out in the last preceding Section; and if the decision of the case upon the law shall render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact, the said Court shall pass a final decision in the case; otherwise the Court shall determine the law only, and the case shall be afterwards set down in the list of regular appeals for hearing upon the question or questions of fact, and shall be determined in the same manner as any other regular appeal.

XII. If any party to a regular suit be desirous of being admitted to appeal in forma pauperis to the Sudder Court, the following procedure shall be adopted:

Clause 1st. The appellant shall present his petition to the lower Court according to the rules prescribed by Section I. of this Act, provided that a petition to appeal in forma pauperis against any decision passed before this Act shall come into operation may be presented within three months from the day of the decision.

Clause 2nd. Petitions of appeal by parties desirous to appeal in forma pauperis shall contain a statement to that effect, and also a schedule of the whole real and personal property belonging to the petitioner, and the estimated value of such property, and shall be written on paper bearing the stamp duty of two rupees per sheet.

Clause 3rd. Upon the presentation of such petition, the notice to the respondent and the proclamation shall state that the appellant desires to appeal in forma pauperis.

Clause 4th. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, the same procedure shall be adopted in that Court as in other cases of regular appeal, except that, after the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, and before notice shall be given requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, the Sudder Court shall determine, according to the rules now applicable to the determination of such cases, whether or not the appellant shall be allowed to appeal in forma pauperis.

Clause 5th. If the Sudder Court allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis, notice shall be given to the respondent to file his grounds of objection in the manner provided by Section VI. of this Act, and the same procedure shall be adopted subsequently thereto as in other cases of regular appeal under this Act. The rules and conditions now applicable to persons admitted by the Sudder Court to appeal in forma pauperis shall continue in force, except where the same are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act.

Clause 6th. If the Sudder Court refuse to allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis, the said Court may make an order to the effect that the appellant, upon filing a petition of appeal in that Court upon paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIII., and Clause 2, Section XXIII., Regulation XIII. of 1816, and upon re-filing his grounds of objection on paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIX. and Clause 2, Section XXIII. of the same Regulation, may proceed with the appeal according to the rules prescribed by this Act in the case of persons not appealing as paupers.

Clause 7th. Upon such order being made, the appellant shall file his petition, and re-file his objections upon paper stamped with the stamp duty required by Clause 6th of this Section, within two weeks from the date of such order, or within such further time as the said Court may allow for that purpose; otherwise the appeal shall stand dismissed.

Clause 8th. Upon the re-filing of the grounds of objection according to the provisions of the last preceding Clause, notice of the order and of the re-filing of such objections shall be given to the respondent in the manner prescribed by Section VI. of this Act, and the respondent shall be required to file his grounds of objection, if any, according to the provisions of that Section. The procedure subsequent to such notice shall be according to the general provisions of this Act.

Sudder Court may fix a day to hear and determine objections in the appeal, before hearing the appeal.

Appeal involving objections of law only may be heard and decided at any fixed time without regard to its place in the list of appeals.

Appeal involving objections of law and fact how to be heard.

Notice thereof and Proclamation.

Procedure on such appeal.

When Sudder Court is to determine whether appeal shall be in forma pauperis.

Notice to respondent to file objections to pauper appeals.

Rules of Sudder as to pauper appeals to continue in force, except where inconsistent with this Act.

What order may be made upon refusal to allow appeal in forma pauperis.

Appellant how to proceed upon such order.

Notice of order to be given to respondent. Subsequent procedure thereon.

Clause 9th. If an appellant shall petition to appeal in forma pauperis, his grounds of objection may be written on plain paper.

In pauper appeals, appellant's objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIII. If an appellant shall be admitted to appeal, or a respondent to defend in forma pauperis, all grounds of objection subsequently filed by either party may be written on plain paper.

All subsequent objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIV. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to regular appeals preferred before the 1st day of May 1855.

Act not to be retrospective.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 14th April 1855.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st March 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855,) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

Act No. X. of 1855.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the attendance and examination of witnesses in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, and to amend the provisions of Section XL. Act XIX. of 1853.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to the attendance and examination of witnesses in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, and to amend the provisions of Section XL. Act XIX. of 1853; It is enacted as follows:

I. Section XXII. Regulation VII. of 1809 and Section VIII. Regulation XII. of 1839 of the Madras Code, and Section XL. Act XIX. of 1853, are hereby repealed:

Repeal of former Regulations &c.

II. If any party to a suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall, by himself or his pleader, make a special application to the Court for an order for a summons to compel the attendance of the party, and shall show to the satisfaction of the Court sufficient grounds in support of such application; otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the trial, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

Special application to compel attendance of party to a suit as a witness.

III. The Court, upon the application of the pleader of any party to a suit whose attendance as witness is required, or without such application, if the Court think fit so to do, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence, and may also, from time to time if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

Court may require notice to be given to a party to show cause why he should not attend.

IV. Clause 1.—In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive a declaration in writing of the party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Written declaration of party receivable.

Clause 2.—If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and upon conviction punished accordingly.

Penalty for false statement.

V. The Court need not compel the attendance of any party to a suit for the purpose of giving evidence therein, if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any material subject of enquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give material evidence therein.

Court not to compel attendance of party to a suit to give evidence, if satisfied that he has no personal knowledge and that he cannot give material evidence.

VI. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed, or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall cause a summons to be issued for compelling the party to attend and give evidence.

Summons to issue if no sufficient cause shown.

VII. No party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open Court, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Section XII. or XIV. of this Act.

Mode of examining party to a suit who offers himself as a witness.

VIII. If any witness, being a party to a suit to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been personally delivered, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons, or attending, or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, the Court, instead of proceeding in the manner provided by the laws in force in the Presidency in respect of defaulting witnesses, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss the complaint, appeal or petition, with costs against such party, or if such party be a defendant or respondent, may hear and decide the case against such defendant or respondent ex parte. If any such complaint, appeal or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal or complaint in respect of the same matter.

Penalty for non-compliance with summons.

IX. A witness not a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned shall not be bound to produce his own title-deeds, unless he shall have agreed in writing with the party requiring the production thereof, or with some person through whom he claims to produce such deeds.

In what case a witness not being a party to the suit in which he is summoned is bound to produce his title-deeds.

X. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend and give evidence or produce a document shall be personally delivered, and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons, and any person who, being in Court, and upon being required by the Court to give evidence or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings to which he would otherwise be subject, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect or refusal, or of such absconding or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in a civil action.

XI. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness who may neglect or refuse to attend, or who shall abscond or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as shall appear proper to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case: provided that, when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit to give evidence or produce a document, the Court shall, at the request of the defendant or respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until the plaintiff or appellant can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence or produce the document required; and that, where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent to give evidence or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

XII. In every regular or summary suit, appeal or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in every summary suit or other proceeding of a Civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence and under the superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer, if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party or his vakeel shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanor of any witness whilst under examination. Provided that it shall not be necessary to take in writing the evidence of witnesses in cases tried by District Moonsiffs in the said Presidency of Fort St. George when the claim shall not exceed 20 rupees, or in cases tried by Village Moonsiffs in the same Presidency.

XIII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels to cross-examine, anything in Section V. Act VII. of 1841 to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. Any party to a suit, appeal or proceeding, who may be examined as a witness therein, shall be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him, in the same manner as if he were not a party.

XV. The words "witness" and "witnesses" in Act VII. of 1841 shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section, at the instance of any opposite party, may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that, in the judgment of the Court, it would be unreasonable to require his personal

XVI. The words "witness" and "witnesses" in Act VII. of 1841 shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section, at the instance of any opposite party, may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that, in the judgment of the Court, it would be unreasonable to require his personal

XVII. The words "witness" and "witnesses" in Act VII. of 1841 shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section, at the instance of any opposite party, may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that, in the judgment of the Court, it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last-mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow or to refuse such deposition to be read.

XVI. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding.

No appeal from Judge's order as to summons, &c.

XVII. If any party to a suit in any Civil Court of the East India Company in either of the said Presidencies or in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal shall, in any plaint, answer or other pleading, refer to any document in his possession or power, not being a shop book or book of account, as a material proof or document in support of his claim or defence, he shall file such document with such plaint, answer or other pleading, and no such plaint, answer or other pleading shall be received without such document, unless, upon good and sufficient cause shown, the Court shall excuse its non-production or enlarge the time for producing it; and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself or his vakil, to inspect and take a copy of the document.

XVIII. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company and the word "Judge" shall include any officer or person having, by law or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses and to act judicially; the word "suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal or proceeding; the word "witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding, or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number shall include the feminine gender or plural number, and vice versa.

Act when to operate.

XIX. This Act shall come into operation on the 1st day of May 1855.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 14th April 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 27th March 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855,) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XI. OF 1855.

An Act relating to mesne profits and to improvements made by holders under defective titles in cases to which the English Law is applicable.

WHEREAS it is expedient, in cases to which the English Law is applicable, to limit the liability for mesne profits, and to secure to bond fide holders under defective titles the value of improvements made by them; It is enacted as follows:—

I. No person shall be chargeable with any rents or profits of any immovable property which he has bond fide paid over to any person of whom he bond fide held the same, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the person to whom such payment was made, had no right to receive such rents or profits.

II. If any person shall erect any building or make an improvement upon any lands held by him bond fide in the belief that he had an estate in fee simple, or other absolute estate, and such person, his heirs or assigns, or his or their under-tenants, be evicted from such lands by any person having a better title, the person who erected the building or made the improvement, his heirs or assigns, shall be entitled either to have the value of the building or improvement so erected or made during such holding and in such belief, estimated and paid or secured to him or them, or, at the option of the person causing the eviction, to purchase the interest of such person in the lands at the value thereof irrespective of the value of such building or improvement. Provided that the amount to be paid or secured in respect of such building or improvement shall be the estimated value of the same at the time of such eviction.

III. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

Act to apply only to cases governed by English Law.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 14th April 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 27th March 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855,) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XII. OF 1855.

An Act to enable Executors, Administrators or Representatives to sue and be sued for certain wrongs.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Executors, Administrators or Representatives in certain cases to sue and be sued in respect of certain wrongs which according to the present law, do not survive to or against such Executors, Administrators or Representatives; It is enacted as follows:—

I. An action may be maintained by the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased, for any wrong committed in the life-time of such person, which has occasioned pecuniary loss to his estate, for which wrong an action might have been maintained by such person, so as such wrong shall have been committed within one year before his death, and provided such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person; and the damages, when recovered, shall be part of the personal estate of such person; and further, an action may be maintained against the Executors or Administrators or Heirs or Representatives of any person deceased, for any wrong committed by him in his life time for which he would have been subject to an action, so as such wrong shall have been committed within one year before such person's death, and so as such action shall be commenced within two years after the committing of the wrong; and the damages to be recovered in such action shall, if recovered against an Executor or Administrator, bound to administer according to the English Law, be payable in like order of administration as the simple contract debts of such person.

II. No action commenced under the provisions of this Act shall abate by reason of the death of either party, but the same may be continued by or against the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of the party deceased. Provided that, in any case in which any such action shall be continued against the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of a deceased party, such Executors, Administrators or Representatives may set up a want of assets as a defence to the action, either wholly or in part, in the same manner as if the action had been originally commenced against them.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 14th April 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 27th March 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

Act No. XIII. of 1855.

An Act to provide compensation to families for loss occasioned by the death of a person caused by actionable wrong.

WHEREAS no action or suit is now maintainable in any Court against a person who, by his wrongful act, neglect, or default, may have caused the death of another person, and it is often-times right and expedient that the wrong-doer in such case should be answerable in damages for the injury so caused by him; It is enacted as follows:—

1. Whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, and the act, neglect or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, the party who would have been liable if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action or suit for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to felony or other crime. And it is enacted further, that every such action or suit shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent and child, if any, of the person whose death shall have been so caused, and shall be brought by and in the name of the Executor, Administrator or Representative of the person deceased; and in every such action the Court may give such damages as it may think proportioned to the loss resulting from such death to the parties respectively, for whom and for whose benefit such action shall be brought, and the amount so recovered, after deducting all costs and expenses, including the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided amongst the before-mentioned parties or any of them, in such shares as the Court by its judgment or decree shall direct.

II. Provided always that not more than one action or suit shall be brought for, and in respect of the same subject matter of complaint, and that every such action shall be brought within twelve calendar months after the death of such deceased person; provided that, in any such action or suit, the Executor, Administrator or Representative of the deceased may insert a claim for, and recover any pecuniary loss to the Estate of the deceased occasioned by such wrongful act, neglect or default, which sum, when recovered, shall be deemed part of the assets of the Estate of the deceased.

III. The plaintiff in any such action or suit shall give a full particular of the person or persons for whom, or on whose behalf, such action or suit shall be brought, and of the nature of the claim in respect of which damages shall be sought to be recovered.

IV. The following words and expressions are intended to have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, so far as such meanings are not excluded by the context or by the nature of the subject matter, that is to say, words denoting the singular number are to be understood to apply also to a plurality of persons or things; and words denoting the masculine gender are to be understood to apply also to persons of the feminine gender; and the word "person" shall apply to bodies politic and corporate; and the word "parent" shall include father and mother, and grand-father and grand-mother; and the word "child" shall include son and daughter, and grand-son and grand-daughter, and step-son and step-daughter.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 14th April 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 27th March 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

Act No. XIV. of 1855.

An Act for the better regulation of Military Bazaars in the Presidency of Fort Saint George.

WHEREAS it is desirable to extend the provisions of Act XII. of 1842 to persons suing for the recovery of debts before Superintendents of Police, under the provisions of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code; It is enacted as follows:—

I. No person residing within the limits of any Military Cantonment, or carrying on any trade or business therein, shall be allowed to recover in the Court of the Officer in charge of the Police, under the provisions of Clause 2 Section XXI. of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code, any debt contracted in the way of trade, or for the loan of money, within any such Cantonment, by any person subject to the jurisdiction of such Court, unless the person seeking to recover the debt shall, at the time of contracting thereof, have been registered as a Military Bazar-man within any such Cantonment.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 27th March 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855,) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XVI. OF 1855.

An Act to amend the Law in force in the Presidency of Bombay concerning the use of Badges.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the provision of the Bombay Code which prohibits the use of badges by persons not in the employ of Government; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Section VI. Chapter 3 Regulation XXIII. of 1827 of the Bombay Code is repealed.

II. No person, not being a servant of Government, shall wear any belt or badge intended to resemble any belt or badge worn by servants of Government, or any badge not bearing, in the characters of a language current in the district in which it is worn, the name or designation of the party by whom the wearer is employed.

III. Whoever commits, or is accessory to the commission of, an offence under the preceding Section shall, whether a British subject or not, be liable, on conviction before any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, within whose local jurisdiction the offence is committed, to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 14th April 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 14th April 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 18th of July next:—

A Bill for the better prevention of offences against the public tranquillity, and to amend the Law regarding the taking of Bonds for keeping the peace.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the better prevention of offences against the public tranquillity, and whereas diverse laws have been made from time to time regarding the taking of Bonds for keeping the peace in the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, and it is expedient to make the law on this subject uniform; It is enacted as follows:—

I. When five or more persons assemble together under circumstances which may reasonably excite apprehension that it is the object of such assembly to overawe any public servant in the exercise of his lawful powers, or to resist the execution of any law, or of any legal process, or to commit any assault or mischief, or trespass, or to put any person in fear of hurt or assault, or unlawfully to take forcible possession of any property, the assembly shall be deemed a riotous assembly, and every member of it shall be deemed guilty of the offence of rioting.

Every member of such an assembly to be deemed guilty of the offence of rioting.

II. Whoever commits the offence of rioting shall be punishable with fine, which may amount to two hundred rupees.

Penalty for the offence of rioting.

III. Whoever commits the offence of rioting, being armed with any weapon for shooting, cutting or stabbing, or with any thing which, used as a weapon of offence, is likely to cause death, shall be punishable with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for the offence of rioting by persons armed.

IV. Whoever joins or continues in any such riotous assembly after it has been commanded, in the manner prescribed in Section XII. of this Act, to disperse, shall be punishable with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for continuing in a riotous assembly after it has been commanded to disperse.

V. Whoever commits the offence described in the last preceding Section, being armed with any weapon for shooting, cutting or stabbing, or with any thing which, used as a weapon of offence, is likely to cause death, shall be punishable with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for the like offence by persons armed.

VI. Whoever directly, or by the agency of another, instigates any person to commit the offence of rioting, shall, if the offence be committed by that person, be punishable with fine not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Penalty for instigating the commission of riot, in case such offence be afterwards committed.

VII. Whoever directly, or by the agency of another, instigates any person to commit the offence of rioting, shall, if that person commit the offence being armed with any weapon used for shooting, cutting or stabbing, or with any thing which, used as a weapon of offence, is likely to cause death, be punishable with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for one year, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for the like offence, if the rioter be armed.

VIII. Whoever directly, or through the agency of another, collects a riotous assembly, shall be punishable with fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Penalty for collecting a riotous assembly.

IX. Whoever directly, or through the agency of another, collects a riotous assembly composed of persons armed with any weapon for shooting, cutting or stabbing, or with anything which, used as a weapon of offence, is likely to cause death, shall be punishable with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for collecting a riotous assembly of persons armed.

X. Whenever a riotous assembly takes place on the land or premises of any zemindar, talookdar, planter, farmer, or other owner or occupier of land or premises, such zemindar, talookdar, planter, farmer, or other owner or occupier shall be punishable with fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, unless he shall prove that he or his agents or servants gave the earliest possible notice to the Police of the fact of such assembly taking place, and used all the means in his or their power to prevent such assembly taking place.

XI. Whenever a breach of the peace is any where committed by a riotous assembly, if such assembly has acted on behalf, or in the interest of any person being an owner or occupier of land as aforesaid, such person shall be punishable with fine, unless he can satisfy the Court either that, after all proper precautions had been taken, he and his agents had no reason to believe that such an assembly was likely to take place; or that he or his agents or servants gave the earliest possible notice to the Police of the fact of such assembly taking place, or being about to take place, and used all the means in his or their power to prevent such assembly taking place.

When a breach of the peace is committed by a riotous assembly acting on behalf of an owner, &c., of land, such owner shall be liable to fine, unless it appears—

That, after due precaution taken, he had no reason to believe that such assembly would take place.

Or that notice was forthwith given to the Police, and that all means to prevent such assembly were used.

ly taking place.

XII. When a riotous assembly takes place, the Magistrate or the Head of the Police, or the Chief Police Officer of the nearest Police Station, shall go to the spot, and shall command the persons assembled immediately to disperse. If the persons assembled do not immediately disperse, the Magistrate or other Officer shall arrest them; and for that purpose may command the aid of all persons present, and of the zemindar, talookdar, planter, farmer, or other owner or occupier of the land or premises on which the assembly may take place, and of the agents and servants of such owner or occupier.

Magistrate, &c., to disperse riotous assembly, and for that purpose may command the aid of all persons present, and of the owner, &c., of the land.

XIII. Whoever being commanded in the manner prescribed in the last preceding Section to aid the Magistrate or Police Officer, neglects, without lawful excuse, to obey such command, shall be punishable with a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees.

XIV. Magistrates are empowered to tender pardon to persons supposed to be guilty of rioting, on condition of their giving evidence as to the circumstances of the riot, and the persons actually engaged therein or accessory thereto.

XV. All persons, whether British subjects or not, who shall be guilty of any offence under the preceding Sections of this Act, shall be punishable, upon conviction, by any Magistrate or Session Judge within whose local jurisdiction the offence is committed. Provided that it shall not be lawful for a Magistrate to impose any fine under this Act exceeding five hundred rupees, or to imprison an offender under this Act for a term exceeding six months. In any case in which the Magistrate considers these penalties insufficient for the offence, he may commit the prisoner for trial before the Session Judge.

Magistrate may tender conditional pardon.
